

Your Chance to Shape Services for the Future

What: Personal Budget Users' Forum

When: November 30, 2015

Where: Red Gables, Ipswich Rd, Stowmarket, IP14 1BE
10am to 12.30pm

Are you working as a personal assistant or PA?

Are you a budget user who employs a personal assistant to help you?

Being an employer of personal assistants can be a daunting prospect. Equally, being a personal assistant can seem a lonely and isolated job. SCODP and Suffolk Brokerage are looking to work together with disabled people and their PAs to look at what additional support both parties would like in Suffolk.

Please come along to this short forum and work with us to shape the future support provided in Suffolk.

Agenda

10:00 to 10:40	Arrival, coffee and introduction
10:40 to 10:50	Aims of the event
10:50 to 11:30	Round table discussions on support for personal budget users and personal assistants to include: • What works well? • What support do you have and value? • What does not work so well? • What support would you like more of, and how should it be provided?
11:30 to 11:50	Break
11:50 to 12:30	Round table discussions on supporting personal assistants to include: • How can we encourage more people to look at careers as PAs? • What support and training do personal assistants get? • What additional support and training would be helpful? • How could we provide the additional support and training?
