

FREE Care Certificate Training for Personal Assistants and Employers 2015

FREE Care Certificate Training

Funded by

Skills for Care has funded some new training that provides a nationally accredited Care Certificate. It is brought to you by Equal Lives, Suffolk Independent Living and Suffolk Coalition of Disabled People, delivered by MRF Training and Consultancy.

It will cover areas including; your responsibilities as an employer or employee, communication, person centered approaches, equality and diversity, duty of care and health and safety (including manual handling information and infection control).

The training is over two days in a choice of three locations (you need to attend both days for your certificate, 9am - 4:30pm).

- Ipswich, IP City Centre - Monday 14th September and Friday 30th October
- Poringland, Community Centre - Tuesday 15th September & Tuesday 27th October
- Dereham, Memorial Hall - Wednesday 16th September & Monday 26th October

All participants will be reimbursed for travel. Employers will be reimbursed the cost of covering your staff member(s) whilst they are on training.

There are limited spaces available! Sign up by Monday 7th September 2015 by calling Equal Lives on 01508 491210 or by emailing NorfolkSDS@equallives.org.uk
